Almost unveiled

-Sarah Lensink-

Living, breathing, knowing
The consciousness of the child growing
And in its short period of darkness, it waits
To learn of beauty and ugliness
Art. Music, poems, and books
And with each hiccup, I feel a flutter
And when it kicks I know it realizes
That it is within
And to crack out of that shell
Of ignorance would be the happiest thing
